Chorus:

In the orchard next to the trough Twilight and green and a bird drinks
A grapefruit is still hung between summer and winter And so am I Chorus: I still walk looking for the love of my life
And I know the season is over so is my youth
The sun is burning up there But here the evening is deep and it is almost autumn If you lose your way and come back
Our love is still here and so am I
The smell of the water, twilight shadow is laid on the road
We will come back in two And walk barefoot in the sand
