Layil rad. Layil rad.

Again the flock streams
through the entrance of the village.

And the dust rises from dirt paths.
And far away a pair of bells accompanies the lengthening of the shadows. Evening has come.

Again the wind whispers
among the garden fences.
And in the tops of the cypress
trees

doves are already sleeping.
And far away, the last rays of sunlight still kiss
the shoulders of the hills.

Evening has come.
Again the rose dreams
its dreams in secret.

And stars flower
little by little in the sky.
And far away, in the dark valley,
the jackal accompanies
the coming of night.
Night has fallen.
