Chorus: Garun....

My love listened to the evil tongues, and filled her black, black eyes with tears.

This world is a very worthless thing, I wanted to get away, to get away and to forget.

Spring, spring, it's spring, lovely, lovely, it's lovely.

With those black, black eyes, my love, you burn me.

From this love of yours, I am lost, can't sleep,

I cry out in tears all night long.

My love, don't turn away from me; I love you.

The passers-by think I want love.
