Thalassa (Sea)

On the wave her golden hair, They bring to me the sunset
Now I want you much more than in the past. And everything is waiting for you
On the rocks that the sea counts, I have built my world, On the elusive flower of joy
I'm waiting for your laughter, Sea, sea you take me away, And all the time you take me back
Ah, bring me close to her for a night, And I'll give you everything
On the wave her golden hair, They remind me of the summers
Heavy winter I have now in the heart, And they give to me the sun
Sea, sea.
